Outline of Memorandum

Organizing Committee of Renewable Energy 2010 International Conference, so-called “A”, exchanges Memorandum with designated Academic Societies, so-called “B” to be able to accommodate the paper in the archive of “B” too, considering the incentive of authors.

The content of memorandum is outlined below;

- 1) “A” has the duty to complete proceedings with all full papers presented, and to distribute it to all conference attendees. Copyright of proceedings belongs to “A”.
- 2) On the occasion that “B” wants to accommodate a paper or papers compiled in “A” to their archive, “A” will transfer the copyright of that paper or papers under the agreed memorandum with “B”. “B” can handle them in accordance with their rules.
- 3) “B” is recommended to write the appropriate wording, indicating the relation with “A” onto their archived paper.
- 4) “A” is to notify all authors of paper in advance that the path to “B” is opened, but it is author’s option, and not for all adoption, and submission is applied to rules of “B”. “A” confirms author’s intent of paper to submit to “B”, when full paper is received during the conference.
- 5) This memorandum is effective within the 18 months from the end of RE2010 International Conference.
